The CAPRICORNIA FILM AWARDS are a bold new initiative from the Darwin International Film Festival to showcase the best film, television and video productions being created IN the Northern Territory or BY Territorians.

The CAPRICORNIA FILM AWARDS welcome entries representing the wide range of screen culture from film, television and video producers. Entries from established film industry professionals through to emerging creatives are all encouraged.

So if you're involved with creating films in the Territory or you're a Territorian making waves elsewhere, the CAPRICORNIA FILM AWARDS are for you!
