

GRIEF & BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT TRAINING COURSE

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST / PRE REGISTRATION

Friday 13 and Monday 16 November, 2015

SIDS and Kids Northern Territory will be running a two day workshop for people who desire greater knowledge, skills, tools and confidence to support and respond to those in grief, particularly following the death of a baby or child.

Presenter: Margaret Lambert MACA, ACEP, Registered Psychologist, EFT Practitioner

Friday 13 and Monday 16 November 9am to 3pm - Venue, Palmerston Library

Course content includes:

- The coronial process
- Grief and Loss
- Self-help processes
- Communicating with the family
- Caring for the Carer
- Identify & Prioritising Issues
- Aftercare
- Certificate (CPD) on completion

This course is ideal for:

- Nurses / Midwives
- Social Workers
- Health /Child Professionals
- NGO Staff
- Community Members
- Bereaved Parents
- Those who would like to volunteer with SIDS and Kids NT

To register your interest or secure a place (limited numbers)

email: educatornt@sidsandkids.org or call 89485311

"The course allowed me to have a better understanding of SIDS and how families are directly impacted by a bereavement. The course gave me practical ways of understanding how to support families through their grief and loss. The course was well facilitated and I would highly recommend the course to Social Workers/Health Professionals working within Hospitals, Counselling Roles, Direct Support Roles and Department of Children and Families". Cate—Social Worker

SIDS and Kids NT Foundation & Media Partners

